The hospital physicians of this city held an inormal meeting last evening at the Children' hospital, on E street northwest, for the purpos ensultation and taking some action of consultation and taking some action to oppose any Congressional legislation on that part of the bill recently introduced in the House of Repre-sentatives to enlarge and define the powers of the Board of Health, which proposes turning over the control of the city hospitals to that body. No definite plan was agreed upon, but it is under-stood that the physicians will strenuously fight all attempts to change the present system and put them under the authority of the Board of Health.

The Dartmouth College Association assembled last evening at the law office of H. C. Bliss, esq.; the president, General John Eaton, occupied the chair, S. R. Bond, esq., acting as secretary. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and unanimously approved. The committee appointed to make arrangements for the annual supper reported that the same had nearly been perfected. A lengthy discussion was then entered into as to whether or not wine should be furnished at the annual supper, but as a majority of the association seemed to be great advocates of temperance, it was determined that liquors should be excluded. On motion, it was agreed that the annual supper be given on the 27th instant. Members in arrears then handed their dues over to the treasurer. The association spant the residue of the evening in pleasant conversation, and in relating anecdotes of long ago. Mr. Bliss was untiring in his attentions to the gentlemen in attendance, and the meeting was in all respects most pleasurable.

A Chapter of Life. A very serious case and one revolting in its de-A very serious case and one revolting in its de-details has come to the attention of the polices Maggie Bailey, a prostitute, swore out a warrant against Richard Mitchell for keeping a bawdy, house. It appears that some time are Mitchell, by alluring promises, induced Maggie to leave her home, in Fredericksturg. Maggie did not know the life of minery and teckening debauchery into which he was leading bee, and was easily persuaded to come to Washington. She began immediately the life of a prostitute, and Mitchell having her in his power exacted money began immediately the life of a prostitute, and Mitchell having her in his power exacted money from her. The girl finally contracted a terrible disease, and would not associate with men. Mitchell used to force her out on the street to pick up men to bring to the house, and even followed her, so she would not have an opportunity to tell of her condition. The life became so edious to Maggie, who still retains some of her womanly feelings, that she has as a last resource procured a warrant for Mitchell for keeping a hawdy-house. He was arraigned in the Police (Court yesterday, and the case was continued until to-day.

Have not the slightest idea to whom I am indebted for the place I hold. A few days after my appointment Gen. Babcock said the President on appointing me took my name from the list of engineer efficers then in the District. I have no reason to believe that Air. Shepherd had me appointed; some time after I was appointed be said he was in favor of my appointment. When I assumed charge I believe it would have been impossible for me to have gotten along without Certley. out Certley.

The Ninth-street pavement Lewis & Co. laid;
Think Hewett was a member of the firm; I can't tell from memory how much it cost to resurface Ninth street.

Q. Was any money held back by the board for the Ninth-street contract? A. I don't know; I notified the contractors, Lewis & Co., to repair their work, with a view of entering suit against them. If any money had been coming to Hewett or Lewis the amount would have been deducted to the extent of the amount to cover the resurfac-ing of Ninth street. STRANGE ALLOWANCE OF THE BOARD OF AUDIT. viously disallowed it, and would have put my feet on it.

A letter was read, written by Lieut. Hoxie, remains to reopen the Ninth-street claim on an application from R. C. Hewett, which was addressed to the board of audit. The expert reported the amount allowed for the Ninth-street work to be for haul, $13,000; raising and retopping carriageway, $15,000, and a small sam for patching. The argregate of the allowance is $11,943.20.

Q. If you had known any money coming to Hewett, you would have stopped fit on account of the resurfacing of his work? A. Yes, sir; I never allowed any claims for old work to be opened. If such were reopened it was without my knowledge and consent.

IN AWARDING CONTRACTS
for conterete work I judged the merits of the different pateents from the status of them when I took hold as engineer. I thought the two patents I selected the best. Witness stated that the reason he did not accept Langdon's proposition to do the surfacing of concrete pavements for nothing was on accounts of the bad quality of his patent pavement; and that at the time the proposition was made Crawford & Hoffman and Murdock were well along with the work. Pennsylvania avenue west, from the President's House to Georgetown, was paved by John O. Evans.

Q. Whe repaired that? A. Crawford & Hoffman and Murdock; one took one side and the other the other. The total cost of repairs to pavements aggregates $800,000. The payments were made in bonds. When I estimated in my report for repairs for sircet work, it was a cash and not a bond estimate.

Q. Did you arrange for the measurement of the repair work? A. It was usually measured when a street was completed; such were my orders. I gave an order that there should be no delay in surveying Crawford & Hoffman's work, because they were doing a very large amount of it.

they were doing a very large amount of it.

CASH CONTRACTS.

Judge Buckner. You speak in your report of new contracts. What do you mean by that—that new contracts were made, out and out? A. They were cash contracts. They number about fifteen.

Q. Were they paid in cash? A. They were to this extent: All in cash except two contracts—one for sewerage and one for other work of the same character. I made several cash contract; in 1874. Albert Gleason had a cash contract; he was paid in cash for the work originally contemplated. When he got through he was given work under an extension of contract, for which he was paid in bonds. The work Gleason was to do was not specific work, but such as was ordered by the Commissioners from time to time. The Commissioners ordered in 1874 that no further contracts should be issued without public advertisement. I don't know why they reversed the order in 1875.

WEAT CONTRACTORS HAVE BEEN BUED.

WEAT CONTRACTORS HAVE BEEN SUED.

Q. Has John O. Evans been sued for not repairing his work? A. No, sir. The only one who has been sued is C. E. Evans.

Q. Has Bingham, the Philadelphia postmaster, been sued? A. No, sir.

Q. Can you give a reason why suits have not been brought? A. The attorney is first waiting to hear from my office. I have not yet made up the statement of accounts for him. I believe, too, the attorney is going to make the C. E. Evans case a test for all the others. WEAT CONTRACTORS HAVE BEEN SUED.

Witness was interrogated at length as to the contractors who furnished sewer pipe. The principal portion was furnished by John Lynch, of the Terra Cotta Pipe Company. His contract was a cash one. When he was paid in bonds the rates were at prices fixed by the old Board of Public Works, and the bonds were taken at par. He also explained that he had remeasured work done by the Board of Public Works at the request of the board of Public Works at the request of the board of audit.

At 12:15 o'clock the committee adjourned until this morning at 10 o'clock. CONTRACTS FOR SEWER PIPE.

DEFRAUDING THE GOVERNMENT. The Case of Mesers. Craig and Bryant Post-

The case of William Craig and Geo. C. Bryant, arged with conspiring to defraud the Govern-t, came up before Judge Snell yesterday orning; Mr. Birney for the United States, and Messrs. Shellabarger & Wilson and Wm. A.

Cook for the defense. The counsel for the Government asked the postponement of the hearing, as he had not been permitted time to secure his witnesses. Mr. Wilson argued that his client was entitled to and should receive a speedy hearing. He was to and should receive a speedy hearing. He was a stranger here, having come to the city on private business from Missouri, and to his surprise found himself arrested last Saturday night and kept in custody since that time, not being in a condition to give the ball required. His character was of the best, and not a stain was upon it. Both himself and Mr. Cook were engaged in a case to come before the Criminal Court to day which, in all probability would require their attention for several days, and it would not be possible to attend to this case after that time for at least two weeks.

Mr. Birney stated that the importance of, this case required care and prudence on the part of the Government, and time was very necessary in looking up the evidence.

Mr. Cook stated that if the Government was not ready to maintain its case it should not have arrested the defendants, both of whom were men of well-known integrity of character. It was unfair. The defendants have rights as well as the Government, and he contended that they were entitled to an immediate hearing under the circumstances.

Mr. Birney thought he would be ready on were entities of an array of the circumstances.

Mr. Birney thought he would be ready on Wednesday. He regarded this as a reasonable time.

Mr. Wilson said that Mr. Craig asked a hearing Mr. Wilson said that Mr. Craig asked a hearing time. Mr. Wilson said that Mr. Craig asked a hearing immediately. He was not disposed to evade any charge that might be brought against him, but he did not wish to rest under any such charges for a day, as he was able to show a clear defense. He had very readily given bonds on Saturday night.

Colonel Cook asked that his client be allowed

Colonel Cook asked that his client be allowed to give such bondsmen as were present. They were all Western men of well-known integrity, and all wealthy gentlemen. Some were members of Congrees, and temporary residents in this city. The Court stated that the bonds of Colonel Craig would hold over for a bearing; the bonds of Mr. Bryant would be fixed at the same amount, $23,000, and must, of courtes, be given according to the rules of the court. The case would go over until Wednesday, according to the request of the District stroney.

Bonds were then taken in the case of Mr. Bryant as follows: Wn B. Bernard, Geo. C. Hrigham and A. L. H. Crenshaw, all of Missouri, and large property holders. THE DISTRICT IN CONGRESS.

French Lodge of Freemasons. last week, was recalled and testified: Wes ap-pointed engineer by act of June 20, 1874; com-JOHN L. ENOWLTON.

Intelligence has aiready reached the city of the death of Mr. John L. Knowlton. Well-known in Masonic circles in this city, in Florida. Mr. Knowlton was the inventor of the famous patent bevol scroll saw, and also of the mammoth circular saws erected at the Washington navy yard in May, 1874. In connection with one of these instruments a sad accident occurred at the navy yard, on the 11th of October following, by which Mr. Edward L. Sypier lost his life.

After putting the saws in position Mr. Knowlton recommended Mr. Sypier as a competent person to run the mill, and the Navy Department placed him in charge, which he retained until his death, a full account of which was published in the local columns of the NATIONAL REFUBLICAN of Menday, October 12, 1874. Upon hearing of Sypisr's unfortunate end Mr. Knowlton immediately started from his home in Fennaylymnia and repaired to this city, where he rendered all the aid in his power to the bereaved widow and her afflicted family, showing that he was a man of noble nature. Yesterday afternoon Naval Constructor Thomas F. Webb, now attached to the navy-yard, received the following telegram from Mr. Fred. T. Behring, at the home of the decessed:

"Sheron Hill, Delauare County, Pa.: We bury" essed: "Sharon Hill, Delaware County, Pa.: We bury Mr. Knowlton at 1 o'clock Wednesday; notify his Labor League. The meeting last night at the headquarters of the Labor League exceeded the capacity of the hall. Mr. Hodnett occupied the chair, and after a few remarks on the arrangements for the Lin-coln hall demonstration next Monday evening, introduced Captain F. R. Butler. The Captain aid he understood that several distinguished gentlemen were here from abroad, and, as much as they were, he had only to say that this organias they were, he had only to say that this organization was an independent one, and none of the political parties could claim it.

The chairman then introduced Hon. John A. Thompson, of Virginis. Mr. Thompson said he was proud to see that the workingmen of Washington had taken stepe to perfect a permanent organization, and that they had the sympathy of the workingmen of America in their struggle. He spoke of the great wrong done them by Congress in taking away the suffrage, and if the Democratic House adjourned without noticing it they need not expect a re-election at the hands of the American people. [Tremendous applause.] Mr. Thompson then went into a complete history of finance, and showed conclusively that labor was creater of everything that existed in the civilized world to day.

finance, and showed conclusively that labor was creator of everything that existed in the civilized world to day.

Col. A. K. Owen, of Philadelphia, was introduced, and said he was astonished to find the interest taken in this cause by the people of the District; the grush was so great that he could not get into the hall for half an hour. It is only one indication of what's to tellow. When an Assertant Congress took from you the right of suffrage they may as well come to the city of Philadelphia and on the same. Nothing can justify it, and no Congressman dare stand up and defend it anywhere before the people. The suffrage must be restored to the people of the District, and that before the present Congress adjourns.

Mr. Owen then expounded his principles of finance, and said, it was the all-absorbing topic next to suffrage, but until suffrage, final and usimpaired, is restored to you I advise you to keep your eye fixed on that boon, [volces we will, we will!) because it's the foundation of every principle for which our venerated eires fought and died. Judge L. W. Case, of Philadelphia, next spoke in a feeling manner of the black days of slavery in the South, and advised the men both white and colored in the District to units for suffrage and the rights of man. He said by organization, and by organization alone, they could accomplish this desirable end.

After this Chief Central Organizer Bracken administered the pledge of membership to 190 men, and after a sufscription of $100 from J. W. Costelloe, to sustain the cause, the meeting adjourned until next Thursday evening, at 80 clock, when the speakers for the mass meeting will be sincusced.

OUTSIDE MEETING. While the meeting linside was going on Jehn W. Murphy, Solomen Hunter, Noble Redmond and George Voterie entertained the crowds that could not gain admission. The spirit of labor is abroad and the crowd swells with the times, Col. Wm. MacWilliams, of Baltimore, Md. adjutant general of the State, called at headquar to-day and gave in his adhesion to the cause.

AMUSEMENTS. The National Theatre-Fique-

The certificate of Miss Sara Jewett's sickness rom a respectable physician was read last night rom the stage. Her role was assumed by Miss Grey, and Miss Grey's by Miss Griffith. The play passed off well under the circumstances. Jawet will appear. This and perhaps one other are among the last performances of this celebrated "play of te-day." Other pieces are to be substituted during the week, and announcements will be duly made. To night we hope to see a LOTTA.

The princess of comedy, Miss Lotta, appears for the first time during the present season at this establishment Monday evening next. The play selected for the initial performance is "Zip," one of her best impersonations, and one admirably adapted to her versatile powers, and it possesses literary merit. Lotta is a popular favorite. Lincoln Hall-Hans Von Bulow.

Adelaide Phillipps—George W. Morgan.

Adelaide Phillipps-George W. Morgan. The concert to be given this evening at the Congregational church will have the great advantage of grand organ music from George W. Morgan, confessedly one of the greatest and best exponents of a grand organ's capabilities in this ountry. Mr. Morgan became distinguished in country. Mr. Morgan became distinguished in this country after his performances at the musical convention held at Tremont Temple, Hoston. Of Miss Adelaide Phillipps, who is to assist Mr. Morgan in this concert, it is hardly necessary for us to speak. Her success in this city but recently in opera was attested by the full houses that greeted her. This will be the last time hiss Phillipps will sing for us this season, and we feel confident our music-loving citizens will fill the house.

Willard Hall-M. D. Conway. This evening at Willard hall the celebrated Moncure D. Conway will lecture on the "Un crowned Republic or State and Statesmen of England." The lecture will commence at 7:00 o'cleck, as Mr. Conway leaves on a tour for Europe after the lecture. We most sincerely invite our friends to hear him. They will be in-structed and amused. Miss Couzins' Lecture.

Miss Phoebe Courins, of St. Louis, will lecture at Lincoln hall this evening. Miss Courins, as an eloquent and charming speaker, has few equals on the lecture-platform. Many of our citizens who have listened to her or only heard of her will be glad to welcome heragain to this city.

Virginia Republican Association-Last night a meeting of the Virginia Republi-can Association was held at Clarke's hall; the president, J. Millard, in the chair, who called the meeting to order. After the opening of the meeting the recording secretary, F. H. Brooks, tendered his resignation, and F. W. Hunter was tendered his resignation, and F. W. Hunter was elected to fill the vacancy. An executive committee was then elected as follows: J. Millard, F. W. Hunter, B. W. Hunter, Wm. T. Balley, E. C. Johnson, E. W. Moore and Mr. Washington. The association then went into a spirited and lengthy discussion upon the names of influence of appointees in the Executive Departments, &c. J. Weed Corey, B. W. Hunter and E. W. Massy were appointed a committee to ascertain the code of election laws of Virginis, and the meeting adjourned.

The Evangelists, Hammond and Bentley THE CONFESENCE. Pifth Day's Proceedings-The Centennial

At 9 o'clock yesterday morning the conference reassembled at the Metropolitan church, and was opened with devotional exercises. Hishop-Bowman anneunced that F. W. Shriner and William Jenkins had been ordained as descens, and H. G. France, J. C. Starr, H. R. Savage, W. McKammack, S. M. Alford, H. O. Smith, C. E. Yeung, B. F. Phonita, F. W. Chawl, L. H. Mychand, S. M. Chawl. F. Cronise, E. W. Crowl, J. L. Hayghe and S. Milford, elders. . The tenth question—the characters of ministers -was called, and those of a large number wer-passed.

Rev. J. M. Reed, corresponding secretary of the missionary society, addressed the conference.

Dr. Myers made a brief address in behalf of the Preschers' Fund Society. the Preschers' Fund Society.

The consideration of the tenth question was resumed. Rev. C. Cleaver was transferred from an effective to a supernumerary relation on account of ill health.

When the Washington district was taken up Rev. Mr. Speake, presiding elder, stated that the churches in this District had been prospecous; 1,160 persons had professed conversion, and most of these had joined the Church. He regretted a debt on the churches in the District amounting in the aggregate to $120,000, upon which they were paying both taxer and interest, stating that were the embarrassments removed their collections for benevolent objects would be greater. The collections were greater during the present than the partyear.

The passets of the Washington district were passed, Rev. C. H. Mytinger being granted a supernumerary relation with an appointment.

The secretary read an interesting communication from Rev. Julius Soper, missionary from the conference to Japan. The secretary was directed to respend, and the communication was ordered to be published in the journal.

THE CENTENNIAL SERMON.

The special order for 11 o'clock was the delivery of the Centennial sermon by Dr. J. A. McCauley, president of Dickinson college, Before Dr. McCauley, president of Dickinson college, Before Dr. McCauley preached the Buell family sang a hymn. Dr. McCauley, prefacing his address with prayer, preached an eloquent and patriotic sermon. He said that the Fourth of July, 1776, was not alone the birthday of liberty; religion, too, was loosed from its bends. It was not more the part of patriotism than of religion to loin in this celebration. It were unseemly for religion to be silent. At the suggestion of the bisnops at the last general conference care had been taken that their people take a worthy part in this great commemoration. He spoke of the vastness and great fertility of our country. The planting of the people was divine. Coming to honor God, they had his special care. That the vine lived at all inferred divine defeading. When the day came to send forth the sublime resolve of 76, it was the testing among the people that God's power had aided them in the victory. The speaker then referred to the adoption of the Constitution and the owns. Schange of government. THE CENTENNIAL SERMON.

The speaker then referred to the adoption of the quoritivities and the ownst scheme of government. The resistent write the property of the second contest with Great Britain. Then, before their fathers had passed away, muttarings of inward peril began to jur the line. In the unreconciliable comparison of slavery and liberty it was early seen lay the nation's greatest danger. But their preservation was of God. As they stood under the stress and strain of that terriol's struggle it was to God that they had looked at last when they had marched through the gates of victory to the morning light of peace. How keen their feeling was that God had been with them. He reviewed the rapid growth of the nation, and attributed it to the progress in all sciences and artibuted it to the progress in all sciences and artibuted it to the progress in all sciences and artibuted it to the progress in all sciences widen industry. It was impossible to overstate the influence of the utilization of nature's forces over the progress of the nation. He referred to the great triumphs of American ingenuity. It might come to pass that their dream of the destiny of the nation would be fuffilled, and their borders widen until they embraced the whole continent, but, remembering Blome, he prayed that it might never be.

but, remembering Rome, he prayed that it might never be.

Nothing in all the works of their fathers had been filled with richer blessings than their adjustment of the spiritual and temporal in the State. The people who demanded that were of all nations friendly to religion. Christianity was the surest prop of civil institutions. Silently their ideas had wrought, till now a free Church and a free State is the goal to which all nations, inspired by their example, were marching. The vigorous growth and attempt of the great denominations of this land was a proof that religion thrived more without than with the endowments and control of the State. In two respects Methodism had left its mark upon this century.

comments and control of the State. In two respects Methodism had felt its mark upon this century.

He referred to the early evangelical werk of Methodism, while the country was being settled, and thanked God that they had been deemed worthy of laying the seed to bring forth better and richer fruit for Jesus. In growth Methodism had custripped the natios. The impress of Methodism on the churches of the land had been no less a mark. Methodism came with its interpretation of atonement, as salvation for all men, singing, shouting universal redemption; it met with a responsive chord in the hearts of all men, singing, shouting universal redemption; it met with a responsive chord in the heart. The fact that the evangelical churches were preaching Christ without regard to creeds was greatly due to Methodist example, silently working through a hundred years. The method of Methodist workings, was the quintessence of American Protestantism;

lu the anignous history of the world the story of American Methodism. Never had there been a day in the world when Christianity was so generally recognized as it was to-day. He urged his brothers to be jealous of the old, the tried and a day in the world when Christianity was so generally recognized as it was to-day. He urged his brothers to be jealous of the old, the tried and the gloriously approved. Dr. McLauley, after reviewing further the relations between the properity of the Church and the advance of the nation, concluded with an eloquent peroration that the nation and the churches might step out into the new century with a resolve to make it even more illustrious than the last.

Hishop Ames offered a fervant prayer.

Her, J. O. Beck offered a resolution expressing the appreciation and thanks of the conference, and Drs. Carroll, Beck and Lanahan were appointed a committee to see to its publication.

After the singing of a hymn the conference adjourned until 3 o'clock.

Afterncon Session. In the afternoon the annual memorial service of the conference were held. Rev. W. S. Ed. wards presided. The service was opened with wards presided. The sarvice was opened with Scriptural reading by Rsv. J. R. Wheeler and singing. Dr. Wheeler offered fervent prayer.

The chairman then stated that they were about to respond to the selemn question in the minutes, "Who have died this year?"

The first name announced was that of the late Rev. David W. Arnold, and a memoir was read, at the conclusion of which the conference sang "Yes, we'll gather at the river." The memoir was adopted. "Yes, we'll gather at the river." The memoir was adopted.

The memoir of Rev. Wm. Prettyman, who died at Millord, Delaware, last summer, is his eighty-third year, was read, and after appropriate remarks was adopted.

The memoirs of Revs. James G. Moore, John W. Hoover and Wm. McKendree Waish were read, and appropriate action taken, and the conference adjourned.

At the Executive Mansion. Last night about two hundred members of the Baltimore M. E. conference, now in session in this city, a number of them accompanied by their ladies, hended by Dr. J. P. Nowman, proceeded this city, a number of them accompanied by their ladies, headed by Dr. J. P. Nowman, proceeded to the Executive Mansion, where they were received by the President and Mrs. Grant.

Dr. James G. Brown, of Baltimore, addressed a few remarks to the President, and Bishop Bowman offered a short prayer; after which the delegation joined in singing s. hymn or twa. The guests were then severally presented by Dr. Newman to the President and Mrs. Grant, who was assisted by Mrs. Col. Fred Grant and Mrs. Newman. After the reception, which was held in the Blue Room, the guests were escorted through the Red, Green and State Dining Roomand Conservatory, and then into the East Room, all of which were brilliantly lighted. In the East Room a couple of hours were spent in promenading and conversation, and the party dispersed evidently gratified by their kind reception by the Chief Magistrate and his amiable lady.

THE REVIVALISTS' WORK.

Pifth Week of the Union Revival Meeting A more acceptable morning for an open-air meeting then that of resterday it would be difficult to secure. The wasther was comfortably warm, and the air, coming from the South, was mild and gentle, and none too strong for those willing to stand on the shield and speak God's word to his people. At the intersection of Seventh and C streets there was probably 200 persons present listening to the brief addresses of the speakers and the experience of those who had accepted the Saviour's plea for the redemption and turning from their wickedness to live.

opted the Saviour's plea for the redemption and turning from their wickedness to live.

At the conclusion of the meeting most of the gathering adjourned to Lincoin hall to be present and, if disposed, participate in the early services of the union revival meetings. It was the day on which the attendance is always the slimest, but this time there was another drawback which it was anticipated would detract many from being on hand who were regular in their coming. Mr. Hammond, concluding to take one day of respite from his labors and at the same time accept an invitation of Capt. Frank Hollingshead to visit Mount Vernoe, was not on hand, and many naturally supposed the interest in the services would lesson and they go proportionately flow, but such was not the case, the clergy conducting them displaying unusual seal found thomselves enjoying a large and pleasant meeting.

The exercises were conducted by Rev. Mason Noble, who has been a faithful and valiant worker in the cause, and to whose efforts much of the success of the revivals may be attributed.

Evening Meeting. Evening Mosting.

Dr. Hammor devinced by his sermon and com-ments that his day's fest at Menut Verson had done him good. He has been working beyond the strength of most mee for the past four weeks the strength of most men for the past four weeks without having the proper rest.

He read and or minented upon Paul's sermon on Mars hill. In the course of his remarks he expressed a general satisfaction at the result of his work in this city; that of course he had met with opposition, intestional and unintentional, but he expected that. He amounced that a half hour or more would be occupied with a praise meeting.

beginning upon the platform and afterwards all over the house, and arese and gave thanks for personal benefits and for the good work wronght upon Washington in general and friends and resistives in particular. Une gettleman stated that $20, of all ages and sects, had been converted and signed the covenant. A large number of the speakers were ladles and children.

Dr. Gray remarked upon a special feature of these meetings, that in distinction from ordinary revivals, where the larger proportion of the attendance was of Church members and Churchgoers, at these meetings there is a large number of those who are not even moral people.

Mr. Hammond took as his subject fitness it.7, incident in the famine in Samaria, where Elisha prophesied a plentiful supply of food, and said to a servant of the king, who said that it might be so if the Lerd should open the windows of heaven. Thank God he has promited to open the storehouse of heaven, and/pour them out such a blessing that they will not have room to receive it. The trouble is that Christians are not ready for blessings when they come, and se do not receive them. They are not in earnest about it. Men can get up excitement about everything but religion, and the moment that there is any excitement they begin to get suspicious. But they should remember that if they sat still they would die. They can never go into the gates of heaven, as they were leprous sinners. Jesus Christ was not their enemy.

He promises to give them food so that they would die. They can never go into the gates of heaven, as they were leprous sinners. Jesus Christ was not their enemy.

He promises to give them food so that they would die. They can never go into the gates of heaven, as they seen their enemy. That is altogether false. Religion makes a man calm, peaceful and at rest. They wanted this Jesus to comfort and sustain them in their troubles.

The following notice was given: At 11:30, at Lincoln hall, immediately after the out-door meeting corner of Seventh and Pennsylvania avenge. There will be no children's meeting. The 1 p. m. meeting at the Foundry church, corner of Fourteenth and G streets. To-morrow evaling meeting for men only—at the same place, Ladles' meeting at the Oalvary Baptist church. Mr. Hammond and Party at Mount Vernon-

Through the kindness of Captain Hollingshead of the steamer Arrow, Mr. Hammond and a party of the steamer Arrow, Mr. Hammond and a party of ladies and gentlemen left on that boat yester-day for an excursion to Mount Vernon. Mr. Bentley's organ was on board, and on the trip down the river the company made sweet music down the river the company made sweet music with the hymns from the "Song Evangel." Arriving at the wharf, Colonel, Hollingsworth, the amuable gentleman in charge, politiely met and accompanied the party through the mansion and grounds, and pointed out all the objects of in terest. From time to time "The Star Spaugled Banner," "My own, My Native Land," and other patriotic airs were rendered feelingly and artistically. Before leaving all the visitors assembled in a large room in the mansion, and after singing "America," a most impressive and appropriate prayer was offered by Mr. Hammend, and the pleasant party returned to the city, having spent a most delightful and happy day together.

Centennial Opening of New Goods. For immense bargains in boots and shoes go to L. Heilbrun's cheap shoe store, No. 402 Seventh street northwest. Read these quotations: Gent's street northwest. Read these quotations: 'cent's calf boots, $2.00 to $10; gent's gaiters, $1.25 to $5; buckskin and kid gaiters, school and working shoes, $1; ladies' lasting gaiters, $1 to $5; ladies' button boots, $1.50 to $6; very fine French kid button, $4.50; French kid bronze slippers, $2.50; ladies' slippers, $2.50; cents to $3.0; sandat, button and tie slippers, children's shoes, 20 cents to $3.

A Valuable Discovery. Dr. C. W. Benson, a practicing physician at 106 North: Eutaw street, Baltimore, Md., (who has North. Eutaw street, Baltimore, Md., (who has paid much attention to nervous diseases,) has discovered that extract of celery and chamomile combined, in a certain proportion, invariably cures headache, either bilious, dyspeptic, nervous or sick headache, neuralgia and nervousness. This is a triumph in medical chemistry, and sufferers all over the country are ordering by mail. He prepares it in pills, at 50 cents per box. The Doctor is largely known and highly respected in Baltimore. These pills are sent, postage free, to any address, and sold by all wholesale and retail druggists in Washington, Georgetown and Alexandria.

Perous Plasters. Porous plasters have been much improved recently in BENSON'S CAPCINE PLASTER, by new method of treating the rubber so that i the qualities for which a porous plaster has been especially valued, and by the addition of Cap-cine, which causes the plaster to act immedi-stely and makes it the most reliable remedy keep and makes it the most females remarks known for-colds, rheumatism, lameness of the back and muscles, kidney complaint, or any of the diseases for which a prous plaster or liniment his beek used. The manufacturers are pleased to learn that there is a large class of onscientious druggists who, having become convinced of the great merit of BERSON'S CAPCINE PLASTER, recommend it in preference to all others. Of such are E. Drehn, Newark, N. J.; Chas, Althanand M. M. Cook, Brooklyn, N. V. Thompson, Lilly & Co., Baltimore, Md.; Robert Powers, Richmond, Va. Vincent, of Broadway. Brooklyn, says "he recommends no other Gulick & Berry, Terre Haute, Ind., say "they are convinced from results from sales there that plasters;" Cole & Flynn, Danville, Va., say "they have given satisfaction in every case;" W. T. Weber, Springfield, Mass., says. "They constitute an advertising medium in themselves." Thus speak many others. The manufacturers also regret to hear that in some instances druggists, acting from pecuniary motives, as not so large a profit is made on them as on ordinary. large a profit is made on them as on ordinary porous plasters, have used their influence to persuade their customers to substitute some other article in place of Benson's Carcine Plaster. When you ask for Benson's Carcine Plaster. When you ask for Benson's Carcine Plaster. be sure you get nothing else. Price, 25 cents.

LETTER FROM FLORIDA. Health and Fleasure at Cove Spring. GLEN COVE SPRINGS, FLA., Macrh 2, 1876. To the Editor of the National Republican: Sin: Believing it may be interesting to some of the readers of the NATIONAL REPUBLICAN, par ticularly those seeking health and pleasure, I propose to give you, in a short letter, a description of this place and my two weeks' trip to Florida. Leaving Washington, in thirty-six hours, by drawing room and parlor car, we are most com-fortably landed at Charleston. Two days spent there were sufficient to "do" that city, whose glory has departed. But limited business and no improvements give a general air of desolation The once thriving cotton and rice business now seems centered in Savannah. The former pala-tial residences facing the Battery have become tial residences facing the Battery have become dilapidated and show neglect and decay.

We take an evening steamer, in preference to going by rail, which in about forty nours should land us at this place, provided there is no delay in crosising the bar at the mouth of the St. John's river. In our case, however, we were delayed, which gave us several hours at Fernandins and an opportunity to examine this old place, which we did by engaging a vehicle and riding about the city; then two miles over a shell-road to the sea-beach, which is one of the finest I have ever seen. The beach is as white as the driven snow and smooth and hard as a parlor floor, and over which dash breakers rivaling Cape May or Long Branch. This place seems to have many natural advantage—an ample harbor, with water sufficient for large vessels, is the terminus of the railroad from Godar Keys or the Gulf of Mexico, and is the shipping point for large amounts of lumber, turpentine, &c. Unfortunately, however, Yulee, the late Senator and a distinguished rebel, claims the entire water front, and is in litigation with parties whom it is represented have equal claim. This of course prevents all improvements.

front, and is in litigation with parties whom it is represented have equal claim. This of course pre-GREEN C678 BPRING.

Steaming up the St. John's river we make a short stop at Jacksonville, the most active business point in Florida, and, thirty miles above, reach Green Cove Spring, one of the most popular winter resorts on the river. The Spring is well worth a visit. Bubbling up from the earth very clear and transparent, at the rate of three thousand gallons a minute, it farnishes fine facilities for pool bathing, and, at a temperature of seventy-six degrees, is particularly beneficial in rheumatism and like diseases. It is within five years that the place has made any advance towards improvement. A Mr. Harris, a New York merebant, came here a cripple, unable to walk, and, finding the use of these waters so improved him, he determined if possible to make the necessary improvements for the comfort of guests seeking a milder climate and the beneficial effects of these waters. The Spring has been ewned for the last firty years by an old fegy, who would neither rent, sell or improve. Mr. Harris, however, succeeded in obtaining a lease of it for twenty years, has improved it by fine bathing pools and houses, fenced and ornamented the grounds, has built a fine hotel, with several nine cottages, and it is not saying too much that the comforts both in heatness and in fare are rarely if ever found in Florida, and equal to many Northern hotels.

This place is now an incorporated city, with its mayor, its council and marshal. Streets are being isid out and shade-trees planted. It contains two hotels and quite a number of boarding-houses. We find here congregated a most cultivated and refined class of visitors.

DR. TRIMBLE, OF OHIO, GREEN COTE SPRING. DR. TRIMBLE, OF OHIO,

DR. TRIMBLE, OF OHIO, a member of Congress from 1850 to 1863, has purchased lots and erected a contage here. He is very enthusiastic in praise of this locality and its spring. Coming here some fire years ago, as he considered, a confirmed invalid, paralyzed in his limbs, he is now hale and hyperty, and may be sean rigorously working an his grounds a portion of every day.

Dr. Trimble, with his most estimable lady, are very courteous and polite to visitors. They have many friends in Washington, and made inquiries of our attractive city. It may not be out of place here to repeat the conversation he had with his friend, a distinguished gentleman (Gen. D——) living on Capitol Hill, in relation to the great improvements, and to the credit of one much abused, Governor Shapherd. The S. rect was being out down in front of his place several feet, and he said: "I considered my property was being ruised, and I did all I could to prevent it. I thought this vandalism and the instigators should be burned at the stake, and would have willingly thought this vandalism and the instigators should be burned at the stake, and would have willingly applied the torch myself, but I have lived, however, to see my error, and, to repair the injustice done to Governor Shepnerd, would giadly express my appreciation of his sagnetty and energy, which has made curs the most beautiful city in the Unice, and well worthy to be the Capital of the nation; and I hold myself ready to subscribe five hundred dollars toward a monument to his name." name."
The climate is most delightful, the thermome ter averaging the past month 45°.
Yours, very truly.
